

Forging a Strategy to Improve Air Quality, and Maintain Energy Reliability at Reasonable Costs

Dulles Hilton
13869 Park Center Road
Herndon, VA 20171

Friday, July 28, 2006
10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Agenda

10:00 – 10:10	Welcome, Objectives	Gina McCarthy and Donald Downes
10:10 – 10:30	NJ Presentation	Bill O'Sullivan, NJ DEP
10:30 – 10:50	Electric System Considerations	Steve Whitely or Gordon Van Welie Invited
10:50 – 11:10	Industry Perspective on Planning for Reducing Emissions on Peak Ozone Days while Assuring Capacity to Meet Demand	Bruce Alexander Philadelphia Electric Company
11:10 – 11:30	NYC metro area Challenge and Control Opportunities	Rob Sliwinski Invited
11:30 – 11:50	Cost Effective Energy Strategy that Supports Environmental Objectives	Paul Miller, NESCAUM
11:50 – 12:00	Summary of Morning Presentations	Gina McCarthy/Donald Downes
12:00	Lunch (Working)
12:20 – 12:40	Cost Effective Control Options and Getting SIP Credit for Innovative Energy Policy/Programs	Art Diem, EPA Invited

12:40 – 1:00	California Energy Plan and how CA address environmental considerations in utility planning	Lainie Motamedi, CA PUC Invited
1:00 – 1:30	Environmental Organizational Suggestions for Addressing the Issue	Mark Brownstein, EDF Invited
1:30 – 2:00	Synergistic Opportunities in Energy and Environmental Planning	Richard Sedano, RAP
2:00 – 2:30	Discussion on Technical Gaps	Gina McCarthy/Donald Downes
2:30 – 3:00	Leverage Opportunity Discussion	Gina McCarthy/Donald Downes
3:00 – 3:45	Strategy Development—mission, workplan, assignments
3:45 – 4:00	Summary, Next Steps, Next Meeting
4:00	Close	